

International Society for Intellectual History
2023/2024 Seminar Series: Women in Intellectual History

All seminars take place 2-4pm BST/GMT, online via Microsoft Teams
Contact: Emily A. Steinhauer | emily.steinhauer@rhul.ac.uk

18 Oct 2023

Emma Bartel (Sorbonne)

'The Forgotten History of Women's 'Serious' Thinking in 17th-c. England and the Art of Protestant Meditation'

Alejandra G. Acosta Mota (La Laguna)

'Love is Power: Female Cultural Politics in Sor Juana Inés de La Cruz' Poems to the Vicerreines'

Commentator: Prof Anna Becker (Aarhus)

15 Nov 2023

Ariane Fichtl (St Andrews)

'Immediate Abolitionism's Intellectual Mothers: Elizabeth Heyrick, Susannah Watts, and the Right Application of the Christian Golden Rule'

Eraldo Souza dos Santos (Sorbonne)

'Women in the Intellectual History of Civil Disobedience'

Commentator: Prof Ann Thomson (EUI)

10 Jan 2024

Michael Walschots (Mainz)

'Johanna Charlotte Unzer (1725-82): Metaphysics for Women'

Emily Evans (Cambridge)

'Female Economists, Pedagogy, and the Codification of British Economic Thought, 1816-1897'

07 Feb 2024

Apolline Taillandier (Cambridge/Bonn)

'The harpsichord and the hammer: feminist epistemologies and programming languages in the United States, Britain, and France'

Amira Moeding (Cambridge)

'"Down the Garden path" on Margaret Masterman, Karen Sparck Jones and language processing in Cambridge during the 1960s and 70s'

06 Mar 2024

Isidora Grubački (Ljubljana)

'The origins of Yugoslav feminism: pre-1918 social democratic political thought, Yugoslavism(s) and the "woman question"'

Manaswini Sen (Hyderabad)

'(Re)Inventing Feminism within the Discourse of Class-Struggle: Women and Intellectual History in the Trade Union Movement of Late Colonial Bengal; and Alternative Narrative of Decolonisation (1920-1947)'

